PROBATION (2) returned to form with a much-improved third trying 2000m at this circuit. Ended up finishing strongly after racing prominently throughout. That effort suggests he is ready to strike. One to beat in this suitable contest. GOLDEN ORBIT (1) can be forgiven her disappointing effort at Ascot where she was down field among stronger company. This is a far easier assignment and holds ability to bounce back. RAJENDRA (3) should take plenty of benefit from his first run back after a spell. Produced a moderate effort when seventh tackling 1800m at this track. Capable of showing much more here now fitter.

BRUNHILDE (3) produced back-to-back runner-up efforts. This included another solid effort over 2400m at Doncaster last time. Well positioned to go one better. LUNELLA (4) made an encouraging debut finishing third at Windsor over 2000m. Open to plenty of improvement. Major contender. BATTLE HYMN (2) returns from a nine-week break after ending her previous campaign below expectations at Windsor. Earlier form gives her genuine claims. Capable of making a successful return. SILK MOUNTAIN (1) should come on nicely for his first-up effort at Southwell where he was 15L adrift. Can take a positive step forward.

FIRE THUNDER (2) raced prominently throughout over 1200m as she continued the consistent form to finish second. Ready to break through and is the one they all have to beat. LANGDALE LASS (3) makes her debut for David Simcock and profiles as an interesting newcomer. Yard isn't known for their two-year-olds. Market support could be telling. PALM BREEZE (7) is another debutante worth keeping a close eye on. The David Loughnane-trained filly has the pedigree to make an immediate impact. MARDY BUM (2) has his quirks but is getting the hang of things. Made late ground when 1.5L third here in a 1000m nursery last week. That was the second time he shaped like this trip was worth exploring. Obvious chance. LADY DUBLIN (1) was beaten 3L or less in each of her four outings to date. The least inspiring effort came last time however over 1400m. Retreats in trip with cheekpieces applied. Likely danger. SUNRISE AT DAWN (3) came home midfield 5L behind in a 1200m Carlisle maiden a month ago. Can step forward from that. SHOWMETHEBUBBLES (4) showed only greenness so far. Difficult to make a case for her.

TWO COMMANDERS (4) lacks the experience of others however has produced three good performances among novice company including a success over course and distance. Drawn towards the rails which could be advantageous. Strong chance. ABERAMA GOLD (1) is not quite the force of old but still more than capable. Denied by 0.5L at Epsom latest (1200m) and now below last winning mark. Must go close. THE GOOD BISCUIT (3) usually runs a bold race. Again the case when 2.5L fourth last time. One win and one placing from two tries at this venue. Might get involved. ARCHDUKE FERDINAND (2) is well weighted to challenge. Shown past form on undulating tracks.

HAADERR (2) recorded a victory at the third attempt on the all-weather last October (1400m) having gone close first two runs. Gelded in the interim and with trainer Ed Bethell in flying form at present brings the most potential. NAVAL LIGHT (3) needed a drop into a maiden to get off the mark last time at Pontefract (1200m) by 1.25L. Obvious contender providing his best figures. MUDAMER (1) has been ticking over so far this campaign and was within 0.5L of success at Thirsk during April. Twice a course and distance winner last autumn. Key player back here. WOODSTOCK (4) responded well to changes of headgear previously. Not ruled out easily.

SOUTH SHORE (1) has blossomed since joining the Robert Cowell stable. Arrives in search of a quick hat-trick carrying a penalty but handicapper probably hasn't yet caught up. Top fancy. INVINCIBLE CROWN (4) gained a deserved success at Musselburgh two weeks ago (1000m) getting up in the last stride.
