A1R SERVICES LTD NURSERY HANDICAP

FLAT TURF GOOD FIRM Participants #6

ARABICA QUEEN (4) built on a solid second at Bath to get off the mark with a nose success tackling the trip at Newbury under Rob Hornby. Further progress likely making nursery debut. Serious player. KEEP KICKING ON (2) was only 1.25L behind the winner when fourth earlier this month at Doncaster. At the time of writing Clive Cox has a twenty-four-percent strike-rate with two-year-old turf runners this season. Shortlist. THEHEATISON (5) improved third-up with Silvestre De Sousa on board shedding his maiden tag gaining a gutsy Bath triumph. Feared. REGAL TIGER (6) might make presence felt with Oisin Murphy taking over the reins.

A race with plenty of newcomers holding obvious potential however LADY ROSALIND (1) kept on nicely to open her account when a comfortable 0.75L winner under Tom Marquand at Ripon and the William Haggas-trained filly may go back-to-back. PRINCESS IVY (8) finished just outside the frame at Newbury eleven-days-ago and could come on plenty. Place chance. PEARL GRACE (6) is worth a market check back down in trip.

Disappointing turn out for a 1200m novice stakes. The overwhelming choice is newcomer GREAT OAK (1) who represents the Karl Burke stable and is owned by a powerful breeding operation. By Mehmas who is a tremendous sire of youngsters and has several smart winners all over the pedigree. Stable are a terrific source of two-year-old winners and are operating at 22% this campaign already. Looks impossible to oppose despite his inexperience. Sole rival is the experienced STAR PEOPLE (2) who has been gelded since finishing well held in fifth at Chester. One for nurseries. MOLLISHA (3) is a non-runner.

WHISKEY KISSES (4) remains a maiden however did indicate promise here over course and distance last week finishing just 1.5L third. There is more improvement to come and cannot be ruled out. Jim Goldie has found a bit of form with a handful of winners in recent weeks and WATER OF LEITH (1) brings plenty of experience though did struggle here behind the main selection. Needs a revival. FLAT TURF GOOD FIRM Participants #7

GOLDEN HAVANA (2) has been slowly building toward a return to winning ways and his unexposed profile on turf is appealing off the back of a good performance when second at Thirsk last month. Rates highly. BRASH (1) is having just his second start in handicaps. Runner-up providing his first go at Ripon two weeks ago and rates a major player despite top weight. SANDS OF SEVE (6) made a promising debut for this yard at Musselburgh last month. Can now build on that. Market check advised as a bold show expected. BRAIN FREEZE (7) finished well held at Beverley. This track should suit better and is worthy of another chance.
