HARSWELL RIVER (6) can build on a return to form when a neck runner-up over 2000m in a Redcar Class Six handicap. Looks nicely handicapped and must be a major player eight days from latest attempt. BALDOSA (4) scored at Nottingham two starts back tackling a 2000m Class Six handicap. Not beaten far when behind the main selection at Redcar last time. Well positioned to turn the tables. DIAMOND AURA (7) was fourth in the same race and lines up again. Solid credentials on the evidence of a previous 0.75L Leicester second in a Class Six handicap trying 2000m. SPORTS DAY (1) is interesting up in trip switching back from the all-weather.

TOWELONHETERRACE (1) may follow up a Chester success when building on a debut third to prove an impressive 1.75L winner of a 1200m novice earlier this month. Sets a good standard on form and holds ability to defy conceding weight. PURE MINT (4) is the pick of the newcomers. This son of Minzaal is an interesting runner for Simon and Ed Crisford. Out of a two-time winning mare and could be a smart prospect. REFLECT ON GLORY (5) also appears for the first time. By Coulsty and out of a useful Irish mare. One to watch in the market.
