Two-time course winner MERRIMACK (2) brings consistent form with three placings from the last four starts. Delivered a 1000m handicap third at Windsor prior to a neck second in this handicap grade at Newbury tackling the trip. Leading player. ANCIENT STATE (1) found success in a lower level 1000m handicap at Southwell AW three starts back before a pair of AW runner-up efforts over this distance including eleven days ago at Wolverhampton AW. Main danger. SECRET HANDSHEIKH (7) is a four-time winner here who posted a close third contesting a 1200m handicap at this venue eleven days ago. Every chance. PRETTYLADY (9) improved drastically on previous efforts landing a modest event at Stratford (3300m) by 1.25L last month. Confidence buoyed and finding a decent opportunity can make it two in a row. COLLANISI (3) showed more making handicap debut at Uttoxeter a month ago coming home third beaten 1.75L. Leading stable persevere and could be in the mix. CASPADA (2) ran on nicely to finish 5.5L second in a maiden when last seen. Starts out among open company now off a competitive rating. Every chance. Unexposed runners GLOBAL HIDEAWAY (6) and BROOKLYN LULLABY (11) might both be worth a check for any market support.

FIGHTING FALCON (2) made a successful start for current yard in latest at Uttoxeter tackling this trip. Cheekpieces worn on that occasion are retained. May have been let in lightly at the weights so warrants respect. RULER LEGEND (6) was a dual winner at Market Rasen this spring. Couldn't quite get the job done there in search of a hat-trick last time. In great condition and looks dangerous here. ACHILLE DES ROCS (1) was entitled to be ring-rusty on first outing for a year last start. Remains one to be interested in on old form. GONE IN SIXTY (8) doesn't win out of turn and must recover from a spill at Fakenham last week. Consistent and could play a role.

A very open contest. COPPER BEACH (3) filled the runner-up spot twice since returning from a long absence this spring. Beaten 5L last time over 3900m under this rider and deserves plenty of thought. DANGER NAP (1) produced a solid effort making handicap debut at Warwick (5000m) coming home 1.5L second. Cheekpieces are retained and enters the equation. ARTISTE D'AINAY (6) had a spell in points prior to a fair fifth at Hexham last month beaten 13L. Might have more to offer. CAN U FEEL IT (2) and FAIRLY FULLING (9) could both benefit from a step up in distance here with the former producing a career best last time.
