FORTY YEARS ON (5) rattled off a hat-trick throughout the season last year. Not disgraced on the all-weather in September and may appreciate this return to turf holding strong claims for an in-form yard. ATA RANGI (4) returned in style with a victory at Haydock Park five weeks ago winning by 1.25L. Steps up in grade while stable goes well here. CONSECRATED (1) should appreciate this drop in grade. Drop in trip might also yield further improvement. Considered racing for one of the best yards in the country. KINDLY QUEEN (7) improved on grass debut when wearing a first time set of blinkers at Windsor four weeks ago finishing just 0.75L behind in second. Not taken lightly. DARKEST RED (4) bids to turn two runner-up finishes into a win after placing second at this venue. Subsequently lost out by a short-head filling the same spot at Windsor. May go one better. HOME SECRETARY (7) failed to place in four career starts so far including when last of nine at Redcar during October. Makes seasonal reappearance and first attempt in a handicap. Improvement expected. QUEEN OF ASTOLAT (8) performed below par running sixth on handicap debut at Windsor a month ago. Still yet to register a top-three effort. More is needed. COSPICUA (9) makes some attraction from bottom of the weights.
