ROSEMARY'S ROSE (5) enjoyed a fine campaign on the all-weather before disappointing as favourite twelve days revisiting turf. Drawn low in stall one and must be taken very seriously back at this track. NO KNEE NEVER (1) ran with promise on turf last week at Yarmouth and warrants real interest switching back to the all-weather on a surface he has recorded both his wins to date. KING OF THE DANCE (10) not a frequent winner however is hinting at promise the last couple of starts including when missing by 1L here in March. One to consider. CHICO DULCE (8) looked like he could improve for the run when fourth at Kempton Park. Major player.

DR STRANGELOVE (1) couldn't land a blow on soft ground at the end of last season however rates highly if returning in the same form as his win at Salisbury in October on turf. Market confidence will be crucial. DYRHOLAEY (2) rather lost his way after winning at Chelmsford City in February and the blinkers are retained for a second time. One to take very seriously. HOODIE HOO (5) was disappointing on turf. Missed an engagement at Wolverhampton last week. Not ruled out on the best of his form. GOLDEN BROWN (4) placed second on all-weather debut at Newcastle in June. Consistent form attempting decent races since including placing second tackling listed level at Redcar during October. HARLINGTON (4) arrives in good form having completed a hat-trick gaining a win at Chelmsford in February by 1L. That streak of form included a win at this venue over this distance in January. Hard to oppose. KING'S HAND (8) won on his final start for Sir Mark Prescott and didn't run badly delivering stable debut. Disappointed at Kempton Park however is of interest revisiting this venue. VICTORS SPIRIT (6) turned a corner on the flat. Found success adopting a first time hood at Southwell last week and rates a major player based on that form. PERFECT SCOUNDREL (2) warrants interest providing initial all weather outing having struggled on turf. Holds ability and is one to note.

MR COLONEL (4) is markedly down in grade making seasonal reappearance. Finished fifth in the 2000m G3 Zetland Stakes at Newmarket (Rowley) after two runner-up efforts at Hamilton Park and Ayr prior. Leading contender. MR COLONEL (4) aims to remain unbeaten after winning on first career outing attempting a 2000m maiden at Chelmsford scoring by 2.75L. Can double up. ACCORDING TO MARK (2) missed the frame debuting with a fourth in a Newcastle AW novice race during November. Improvement expected after a break. HEATHERS FEATHER (3) might fill fourth spot on the back of a sixth providing sole career start.
