ADONIUS (1) was impressive on debut at Musselburgh and followed up revisiting eight days later going back to back under a penalty. Has to concede weight all round here and drawn well to strike warrants respect. FINAL APPEAL (2) caught the eye finishing second on debut at Nottingham. Managed to take a major step forward at Wolverhampton a fortnight ago. Can be considered back on turf. WAIT GEORDIE (4) will have been aiming toward this race after scoring at Bath during April. Connections expected to be desperate to win this big race at their local track. HICKORY LAD (3) has done little wrong to date and deserves a second look.

TORNADO TOWER (7) is a full-brother to the high class Hurricane Lane. Made a satisfactory debut when second at Nottingham four weeks ago. Could prove capable of a big step forward on this second start despite the wide draw. Increasing the journey is sure to suit ARABIAN DESERT (2) who is a son of Frankel. Was too keen at Pontefract last month. One to take very seriously. ALFARAZ (1) ran in what looks to be an above average contest at Newbury three weeks ago when only 1.25L sixth. Respect racing from stall one. EL NAY (3) steps right up in trip which looks sure to benefit him and warrants a market check.

PIETRO (14) after an absence returned to winning ways on the all-weather at Wolverhampton in March. Warrants respect back on turf where he maintains a good record of three wins and five placed efforts in twelve starts. DANCE IN THE STORM (1) is drawn wide however is talented enough to get involved if back in the same form as the third place finish at York during August. GOLDMOYNE (4) made fast progress on the all-weather this winter. Disappointed at Newmarket three weeks ago. Connections have now reached for a first time visor and he is worth giving another chance.
