An excellent feature which can go the way of the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner of last year DARYZ (3) who remains unbeaten this season. Gained an easy success in the 2100m G1 Prix Ganay before scoring by 3.5L the G1 Prix Aga Khan IV over 1850m at Longchamp (France) last month. Top chance. OMBUDSMAN (6) won this event last year and bids for a 2026 hat-trick with a 1.75L victory in the 1800m G1 Dubai Turf at Meydan (UAE) preceding a neck win contesting the 2000m G3 Brigadier Gerard Stakes at Sandown three weeks ago. Leading player. ALMAQAM (1) holds claims based on his solid third in the course and distance G1 Champion Stakes of last season. Interesting. Two-time classic winning filly MINNIE HAUKE (7) might feature.

SERGEI DIAGHILEV (17) was impressive on debut for Aidan O'Brien and should be hard to beat. Has a great pedigree and is a juvenile with a big reputation. Could prove too good for these. CONTROLLA (20) enters calculations after a neck second in a G3 on debut. Should make major progress. RULER'S CONTROL (15) is another first-time-out winner. He only won by a head but holds major potential racing for top connections. SALE SHARK (16) looked smart when getting off the mark at Hamilton. Huge increase in grade here but deserves a shot at it. CELERON (6) surprised on debut at the Curragh attempting 1200m. Might cause another shock on this occasion.

BRAIN FREEZE (4) left behind four disappointing efforts to narrowly come out on top of a handicap at Redcar by a head providing most recent appearance. May gain a double. WHAT A TAHOO (8) makes some attraction towards bottom of the weights. Aims to turn two placed efforts into a win after a third at this venue before filling the same spot at Carlisle. Expected to challenge. DORALEE (3) was third three attempts ago contesting a handicap at Doncaster. Missed the frame last two starts. Might bounce back. YOU MYSTIFY ME (2) cannot be discounted adopting a first-time visor having finished sixth at Catterick.
