Seven-time course winner ROMAN DRAGON (3) receives a nice draw in stall three. Booking of Oisín Murphy catches the eye. He won this twelve months ago and warrants respect now back off his last winning mark. Highly talented performer SEVEN QUESTIONS (9) was a good third making his reappearance at Pontefract and cannot be ignored from the inside gate. STRATUSNINE (5) could be firmly in the mix following a decent second over 1200m at Newcastle last time. Must be considered for a yard that targets this meeting. ARKLOW LAD (12) also needs to be included having won the aforementioned handicap beating the second mentioned who was third.

JUPITER AMMON (14) makes for major appeal. Shaped with promise when only beaten 1L over 2000m at Newbury nineteen days ago. His trainer Andrew Balding has a great record at Chester. The fitting of cheekpieces helps his chances. LET'S DREAM (4) won over course and distance at this meeting last year and is back off a 208-day break having scored by a neck tackling 2100m at York in October. CELEBORN (1) is fascinating off a long absence. This 2L winner at Epsom last April is worth a market check for the in-form George Boughey yard.
