YELLOW CARD (8) indicated enough ability on the flat to make him of interest hurdling. Looks more of a long term project. Turned a corner at Ffos Las last month and finds the perfect opportunity to get off the mark jumping. PREMIER FANTASY (3) has plenty of experience from the point to point field. Pulled up on his sole run under rules a year ago and looks vulnerable though this isn't a deep contest. POLEMON (2) won three times on the flat however is yet to replicate that when hurdling. Best watched. BRENDA LADY (9) looked in need of the experience debuting at Ffos Las. One for further down the line.

DUNKERQUE (1) arrives seeking a fourth win in a row after completing his hat-trick at Kelso a week ago. That was by 1.25L and expected to be fine around this tight circuit. Looks hard to oppose on current form. DOC MCCOY (3) failed to complete last three starts with the most recent unseating coming at Southwell three weeks ago in a race eventually won by the main selection. Needs to get into a rhythm quickly here. FRANIGANE (2) joined the Paul Nicholls stable late in his career and the market could prove the best guide to his chances. VENGEANCE (4) remains a maiden after fifteen career starts. Best watched.

MATTY'S MATE (1) was an expensive purchase and wears famous colours while from a good family. Representing a powerful stable who do well in these races at this venue looks hard to oppose. Already given a wind operation ROCCANA ROSE (8) wears a tongue strap and hood for her debut. Hails from a fine family and may prove a major threat. THEPASSINGTYPHOON (3) doesn't possess the flashiest of pedigrees however is by a top sire and could easily be in the placings on debut. Barry John Murphy is responsible for two runners here including MR SUNNY (2). Rates the pick of this pair where dam won on the flat and deserves a market check.

FORTAMOUR (2) showed plenty of ability four weeks ago when a close second tackling a higher standard course and distance handicap. Receives a nice draw which may help. Rates highly. GLORY HYDE (11) won twice last three outings with a 1000m Wetherby success preceding a Beverley fifth and a latest 0.5L victory contesting a lower graded 1200m handicap at Redcar two weeks ago. Main danger. RAFT UP (10) completed AW double securing a 2L Southwell win prior to a neck success tackling this trip at Newcastle before a close Carlisle fourth two weeks back. Likely player. MAGIC BOY (5) ended last year scoring narrowly a 1400m handicap at Redcar during November. Shortlist providing comeback run.
