ANGELS PASSING (1) was clearly held in high regard starting off in a York Listed race on debut (1000m) producing a highly promising effort finishing 4.25L fourth. This half-sister to six winners looks tough to beat. MEENNAA (4) is a fellow daughter of No Nay Never. Always prominent and stuck to the task when a 0.75L second on the all-weather first up (1200m). Potential to improve. JAZZ QUEEN (2) was getting the hang of things when a useful second at Chester (1100m) on penultimate run. Didn't quite match that subsequently. Experience could be key. Debutant LITTLE LADY KAREN (3) comes from a top yard and cannot be ignored.

FIRE THUNDER (4) looks primed to finally get off the mark having narrowly missed at Wolverhampton while held that form at Windsor. Sure to be popular and brings strong claims. IT'SBEENEMOTIONAL (6) indicated promise on debut at Kempton Park two weeks ago when 2.75L away contesting a 1200m event. Will have learned plenty from that experience and could prove more streetwise. CRYSTAL KRAKEN (1) holds experience from three runs. Offered more promise at Redcar when last seen and will find things easier in nurseries. ROCSANE (8) was a big price and looked in need of the run when debuting at Yarmouth. One to watch.

FOREST BERRY (4) stepped forward on the second start of her career finishing runner up at Chepstow two weeks ago. Horses from the stable get better with experience and she looks hard to fault. RON'S ANGEL (8) was only beaten a neck when debuting for a big price in the market at Bath. Will improve for that outing and might be playing a major role. ZIGAZIG AH (10) is a newcomer from a stable holding plenty of juvenile success. Closely related to several winners and deserves a market check. LAST DANDELION (6) offered very little on the two attempts to date. Worth noting as nurseries are not far away.

FALLACIOUS PROMISE (7) finished second past two starts including after a step up to 2000m at Newcastle beginning of May. The better performance came at Kempton Park tackling this trip and looks the one to beat back trying 1600m. SAIL ON SAILOR (2) scored on the turf at Bath four weeks ago winning by a nose. Major player. MIST OF TIME (8) delivers initial handicap outing and deserves a market check with improvement likely.
