RIZAL (3) opened his account comfortably by 3L over 2000m at Doncaster last time. A 2.7kg rise looks manageable and stepping up to 2400m should suit this strong-finishing gelding. Leading contender. NIGHTSINWHITESATIN (2) finished 4.25L second tackling 2400m at York seven days ago to record her fourth placing from five starts this term. Retained cheekpieces and the engagement of a 2.5kg claimer are positives. Major player. SPIRIT OF JURA (1) was beaten 1.75L into fifth attempting 2600m at this track on latest appearance. She won here last season and returning to 2400m can help against this small field. Jason Hart takes over. Cannot be discounted from stall one.

This should be a routine opportunity for the Charlie Appleby trained CERRO BLANCO (1) who arrives here off the back of finishing 1.25L second in the listed King Charles II Stakes on the Rowley Mile. Looks to be a class above this field. VASTERN (5) never made the track for George Boughey but wasn't disgraced on debut for Adam Kirby at Chepstow a few weeks ago. Will learn plenty from that experience and holds every chance. Newcomer ANNCANYA (6) will need to be exceptional on debut to win but has winners in the pedigree and is noted. LIVEMORE (3) looks to be a long term project and is best watched.
