EVENFALL (4) is a speedily-bred newcomer by Harry Angel and half-sister to the 1000 Guineas-placed Simmering. From the George Boughey yard who are certainly capable of readying one and makes for plenty of appeal. ANCHIANO (1) looked a lot more straightforward with a newly-applied hood (retained) when causing an upset over course and distance a week ago. Field is packed full of bright two-year-old prospects. Betting will be key. LORRAINE (6) is by Frankel representing the John and Thady Gosden stable. Out of a G2-winning dam and warrants respect on debut. ART OF LIFE (1) can progress from a 5.5L sixth here twenty one days ago attempting a 1200m novice. This well-bred filly should improve on debutante effort. BLUE CORN (3) is a newcomer by Dark Angel. From a decent family so worth giving a market check. BABZINI (2) has the benefit of two runs. Good effort when 2.75L third at Salisbury in a 1000m novice first time out while sixth at Goodwood in a 1000m novice. Needs to step forward however holds potential.
